ORGANIZATIONAL DESCRIPTION

The Association of Asian Pacific Community Health organizations (AAPCHO) is a national association of community health organizations serving Asian and Pacific Islander populations across the United States and its territories. AAPCHO's mission is to promote advocacy, collaboration and leadership that improve the health status and access of Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders within the US, its territories and freely associated states, primarily through our member community health clinics. Our vision is to establish a standard of excellence for community-based health care that is equitable, affordable, accessible and culturally and linguistically appropriate to the people we serve.

Position/Role:

The Diabetes Prevention Program Evaluator reports to the Director of Community Services and Partnerships. The Program Director will also work closely with the Diabetes Program Director, Executive Director, Director of Community Services and Partnerships and key consultants in design, implementation, and coordination of all evaluation activities related to the Centers for Disease Control Pacific Islander Diabetes Prevention Program (CDC PI DPP).
